

Annual Report
April 2022 - March 2023

Future Projects:

Finish restoration of the Jackson Mansion.
Restore the original Parlor Maids' House.
Restore the original servant's house. Have the Grand Opening of the David A. Sadock House. Continue work on restoring Mrs. Jackson's original vegetable garden.

We couldn't accomplish what we do without our wonderful volunteers. The Berwick Historical Society has over 70 volunteers. Donne Shepperly pictured below, was this year's recipient of the Volunteer Recognition Award. Donne helps at the Carriage House Gift Shoppe, cleaning the Jackson Mansion and the David A. Sadock House, and at all of our special events.

The David A. Sadock House
 Dedication & Grand Opening

This Month in Berwick Limited
THE BERWICK HISTORICAL SOCIETY
 1870-1970

The new home of the Berwick Historical Society Museum and Library will be officially christened The David A. Sadock House Saturday, June 24 starting at 1:00 p.m. The man, his family, his business, and his legacy have made him extensively prepared for, long-awaited, and much-anticipated grand opening possible.

David Albert Sadock was born January 28, 1904 in Berwick, the oldest child of Michael and Ann Sadock, a namesake for his maternal grandfather Albert Ruppel who was a founding member of the Maria Assunta Society. His siblings are Robert and Susan Sadock and Stephanie Fekete. He married his high school sweetheart Danalle Ross September 16, 1929. Together they raised three daughters Hannah Sadock, Lillian, and Lauren and Megan Sadock. The members of the Sadock family who raised the Lady Rose and Kaylene companion are omitted.
